

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

December 9, 2011

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH December 7, 2011

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are four sections in this report: Section I: WEEKLY ARRESTS FOR SELECTED CHARGES; Section II: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section III: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section IV: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road. This report is not a comprehensive list of every police event or larceny in Fairfax County in the stated timeframe.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

Domestic violence-related charges: 37

Illegal drug-related charges: 62

DWI-related charges: 79

These numbers are based on preliminary data which undergoes frequent modification and may not reconcile with year-end totals.*

Section II: MAJOR INCIDENTS

COUNTYWIDE

SANTA'S RIDE: As Christmas approaches, children everywhere will be watching the skies for Santa Claus. In Fairfax County some very special children won't have to wait until Christmas Eve. Santa and his elves will be rumbling down the streets of Fairfax County on motorcycles December 12, 13 and 14. Once again, Santa has temporarily traded in his sleigh and reindeer for a Harley Davidson motorcycle. The Fairfax County Police Motorcycle Squad, in cooperation with the Fairfax County Sheriff's Office, Virginia State Police, Fairfax City Police, Falls Church Sheriff's Office, and the Town of Vienna Police will be escorting Santa on his 25th annual Ride for Children.

On Monday, December 12, Santa's elves will pick up toys and other donations from police stations and other government facilities throughout the county. On Tuesday, December 13, Santa will visit seven Fairfax County public schools. Santa and his helpers will deliver toys to children at INOVA Fairfax Hospital Child Life Center on Wednesday, December 14 and to the Georgetown Hospital Lombardi Cancer Center on Thursday, December 15. Toys will also go to various local charities including the Ronald McDonald House and the Reston F.I.S.H. (For Immediate Sympathetic Help). Anyone wishing to make a donation should bring a new, unwrapped toy, game, book, or other gift to any Fairfax County Police station or their designated school or to the Fairfax County print shop at the Government Center. All donations should be made before 9 a.m. Monday, December 12. An itinerary for Santa and his helpers is available upon request from the Public Information Office at 703-246-2253.

ILLEGAL PRESCRIPTION DRUG SALES: From small bodegas to tiny butcher shops, unauthorized prescription drugs are being sold in a variety of spots across Fairfax County and police are working to stomp it out. Officers served over a dozen search warrants across the county today, seizing thousands of doses of painkillers, birth control pills, antibiotics and other drugs that are being illegally dispensed. Customers typically pay cash between $5 to $25 per dose for the medications; stored in boxes within arms' reach of the cashier. An undercover operation has targeted the wide-ranging scope of the problem over the past six months.

Police received a few sporadic reports from the Latino community that counterfeit drugs were being sold over the past several years. Police immediately stepped up their efforts to tackle the problem after a woman came forward when she became violently ill and been hospitalized after taking the drugs a few months ago. “Some of the people who came forward asking for help from us were very hesitant to do so. They were non-English speaking immigrants who came from countries where they’d had negative experiences with law enforcement, so it was a tough thing for them to do,” said John Piper, Commander of the Criminal Intelligence Division. “Most likely, there are many others who’ve become ill from these smuggled drugs that we will never know about.” Search warrants were served today at the following locations:

- Kings Corner, 6138 N. Kings Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22303
- La Despensa, 7500 Richmond Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22306
- Rico Supermarket, 7849 Richmond Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22306
- Margarita’s Grocery, 8512 Richmond Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22309
- El Compadre II, 8723 Cooper Road, Alexandria, VA 22309
- La Placita, 2929 Gallows Road, Falls Church, VA 22042
- San Miguel, 5900 Leesburg Pike, Falls Church, VA 22041
- Culmore Super Market, 6019 Leesburg Pike, Falls Church, VA 22041
- 99 Depot Plus, 6229 Little River Tnpk, Alexandria, VA 22312
- Mi Tierra Mercado, 6531-F Little River Tnpk, Alexandria, VA 22312
- Bestway, 3019 Graham Road, Falls Church, VA 22042
- Desi Bazar, 6127 Backlick Rd, Springfield, VA 22150
- Mercado La Colonia, 6971 Hechinger Drive, Springfield, VA 22151

Police are continuing their investigation and will make arrests and charges as appropriate. That information will be compiled and released to the public at a later time. Today’s operation included a variety of resources from within the police department along with officials from the Fairfax County Health Department and the Fairfax County Zoning Agency. The SUV stopped momentarily and then sped off, still traveling north on Richmond Highway. The striking vehicle was further described as a red, Jeep Grand Cherokee or something similar. The vehicle should have damage to the right front.

RETAIL ANTI-THEFT TEAMS/ARREST: Phony credit cards, stolen identifications, and out-of-state shoplifting scammers are being targeted by Fairfax County Police Retail Anti-Theft Teams (RATT) once again this holiday season. In an annual effort that began "Black Friday," RATT officers are patrolling the malls and shopping centers across Fairfax County hoping to keep the areas safe and crime-free. One arrest so far this season involves a 41-year-old man who approached a high-end jeweler in Tyson's Corner Mall to purchase a $10,000 watch on Saturday, November 19. An alert sales clerk noticed a discrepancy in the "customers" paperwork and conducted a quick search. She saw that the man was on the Prince Georges County Police Top Ten list of Wanted Felons where he was described as "violent." She stalled him as police officers approached the store. The suspect fled but was quickly apprehended by mall security and RATT officers. The arrested was taken into custody and police discovered over $20,000 worth of merchandise he had purchased allegedly using stolen credit cards from Maryland and Virginia. Teams of Fairfax County officers are working in shopping malls and retail businesses in both uniformed and plain-clothes capacities. They are targeting all shoplifters but particularly the "professionals" that distract store employees while associates across the store attempt to conceal and steal merchandise.

In 2010, officers assigned to the retail theft operations made significant arrests, charging suspects with fraud, forgery, embezzlement, possession of stolen property, distribution of narcotics and more. In the Fair Oaks Police District, 41 adults and 23 juveniles were charged with 182 felony and misdemeanor offenses. In the McLean Police District, there were a total of 115 people charged with 152 offenses; and $196,386. worth of stolen merchandise was recovered. Working closely with store and mall management and loss prevention staff and security, the holiday RATT officers are committed to keeping scofflaws away from Fairfax County retailers and residents. ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

RABIES VECTOR: Animal Control officers responded to a home in the 11000 block of Vale Road in Oakton for a report of three Sharpei dogs that attacked a raccoon around 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, December 1.
